v.

DOWNEY SAVINGS AND LOAN
ASSOCIATION, FA, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 5:15-cv-02000-HRL

ORDER RE DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 33

Defendant Greenwich Capital Financial, Inc. (Greenwich) moves for a protective order re plaintiff's discovery requests.¹ Upon consideration of the moving papers, and good cause appearing, defendant's motion for protective order is granted as to plaintiff's requests, which were prematurely served. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1). Greenwich need not respond to those requests at this time.

Additionally, given the pendency of Greenwich's Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss, the Initial Case Management Conference is continued to January 26, 2016, 1:30 p.m. All related deadlines are adjusted accordingly.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 13, 2015
